

Dear Colleagues,

AEMRN annual Strategic Planning Symposium in Bern, Switzerland on “Innovative Tools and Strategies to tackle the Acute Shortage of Health Workers in Low-Income Countries” from 23rd to 24th September, 2010 - Still accepting papers for presentations

After good consultations with AEMRN executive in Germany, the much looked forward to AEMRN annual Strategic Planning Symposium on “Innovative Tools and Strategies to tackle the Acute Shortage of Health Workers in Low-Income Countries” will take place at: Universal Postal Union conference complex in Bern Switzerland from 23rd to the 24th September, 2010.

A great emphasis on Sub-Saharan Countries carrying more than 60 % of the burden of the acute shortage of health workers globally will be the highlight of the meeting.

As per continued email and telephone confirmations we are still accepting papers, documented cases of good practices and projects for presentations.

Please kindly follow the format in the document entitled: Outline for Abstract submission cases of best practices for the 2010 symposium.

AEMRN members and collaborators look forward to welcoming you all to Switzerland in September 2010.

Herzliche Willkommen!!!

Cheers,

Dr. med. Charles Senessie
Founder and President
Afro-European Medical and Research Network (AEMRN)

www.aemrnetwork.ch

Neuengasse 8

3011 Bern

Switzerland

+41 31 311 4084

+41 31 911 5394

+41 31 911 8853 - Fax

+41 78 838 8540 - Mobile

Email: contact@aemrnetwork.ch
csenessie@aemrnetwork.ch